British Journalists Threaten to Strike

LONDON (Reuters) — Journalists on 14 national magazines and trade papers with a total circulation of 6,000,000 threatened yesterday to strike April 18 for a wage increase.

The 274 members of the National Union of Journalists are employed by Odhams Press. The London Daily Herald, daily newspaper also published by Odhams, is not affected by the dispute.

Resentment Mounts

Immigration Barriers Shock New Canadians

Rising Italian Influx Reason for Curbs

TORONTO (CP) — Resentment is mounting among ethnic groups here to the federal government's latest action in restricting the flow of immigrants to Canada.

Spokesmen for various organizations of new Canadians expressed "shock," "sadness" and "disbelief" over the government's move to curb the immigration influx of all but the closest relatives of Canadian residents.

NO SPONSORING

Under the new regulations —effective April 1—residents are prohibited from sponsoring brothers and sisters and married sons and daughters who are citizens of Europe, Israel, Lebanon, Turkey, South America, Mexico and Central America.

The action was taken mainly because of a steady rise in the number of Italian citizens with relatives in Canada who have applied to come to this country, a government official said.

ITALIANS LEAD

Immigration officials said Italians in Canada are more active than other racial groups in bringing close relatives to Canada.

The new regulations were praised by labor groups who consider further immigration undesirable now because of Canada's unemployment problem. However, the groups affected by the new order may still come into Canada as unsponsored immigrants if they have certain skills.

AFFECT INDUSTRY

Dr. Eugene Faludi, town planning consultant and president of the Italian Businessmen's Association, said many Italians, although not technically skilled, were experienced laborers. Prohibiting them from entering the country would affect the construction industry.

TOUGH ENOUGH

Hans Kanes, speaking for the large German population in Toronto, said "it was tough enough already to bring immigrants into this country."

Father Eugene Borday of St. Elizabeth's Hungarian Church said it is "cruel" to cut off the hopes of some 32,000 Hungarians still in camps in Europe.

RAISE QUESTION

In Hamilton, Quinto Martini, Progressive Conservative member of Parliament for Hamilton East and the first Italo-Canadian to sit in the House of Commons, said he will raise the question of the change in regulations with Prime Minister Diefenbaker.

P. Capozzi, a grocery store owner and a Kelowna resident here for 40 years, said the legislation was discriminatory.

"I am very surprised," he said "especially at a time when the peace of the world is threatened."

NATIVE OWNERS

Some 100,000 natives own plantations in Africa's Ivory Coast, now a self-governing republic in France's overseas community.

'Jewel of Loodipoor' Gay Musical Farce

By BERT BINNY

Light opera, in the form subtitled a "musical farce," took the stage at Oak Bay junior high school Thursday and last night.

"The Jewel of Loodipoor," written and composed by Mme. Winifred Lugrin Fahey and presented by Victoria Lodge No. 2, BPOE, was colorfully staged and featured a number of particularly gay tunes as well as some outstanding character acting.

For consistent excellence, a palm must be awarded to Dick Pugh as Detective Pye and to George Espin as Alib.

Peggy Walton Packard as Eleanor sang beautifully, as did Leona Hanley in the part of Nada. Veronica Hutchings as Dolly was delightfully clear and positive.

Laura Miller's Sally, always under suspcion of gold-digging, was appropriately coy and Ian Willox played and sang Peter Mowbray with a carefree ease that occasionally overran the boundaries of complete credibility. David Paul made a good musical comedy character out of Sir Harry Hamilton.

On the first night, the chorus seemed more at ease during and after the second act.

Costuming, scenery and lighting were all well handled even if the first was sometimes a trifle startling.

All proceeds from the show are to be devoted to the Purple Cross Fund for crippled children in Canada.

Two Crashes Of 'Copters Kill Brothers

RICHLAND, Wash. (AP)—A U.S. army helicopter carrying three men plunged to earth and burned on the huge Hanford atomic works reservation near Richmond Thursday, killing all aboard.

Ironically, one of those who died in the crash — Capt. Patrick McDonnell—was the brother of a U.S. Air Force Sergeant William A. McDonnell, who was killed March 7 at Spokane when a helicopter being used in the search for a missing child smashed into the Spokane River.

The army said others killed were: Chief Warrant Officer Leo F. Tuttle, the pilot, and Maj. Joseph Giuliani.

Camp Hanford authorities said a board of officers had been assigned to investigate the accident.
